Engineers Propose Changes And Glades Folks Disagree

The United States Corps of Engineers held a public hearing here Wednesday to discuss a proposed $68,900,000 plan to improve the supply distribution and conservation of water in this area and south.

Major features of the Corps' plan recommended:—Raising levees surrounding Lake Okechobee to permit storage of 4 feet of additional water. This means a seasonal regulation range between 19.5 and 21.5 feet above mean sea level.

—In wet periods when Lake Okechobee requires regulatory discharges first priority would be given to pumping the excess water to conservation areas in the Everglades for use by Everglades Park and the lower East Coast area.

—Miami and North New River Canals would be improved for more efficient transfer of excess water from Lake Okechobee to the needed areas.

—Capture water during the east coast during periods of heavy rainfall and backpump the excess to the water conservation areas. Backpumping facilities would also be provided for delivering water from Martin and St. Lucie Counties to Lake Okechobee.

—Deliver a minimum of 315,000 acre feet to Everglades National Park annually whenever water supply conditions permit.

—Provide conveyance canal to South Dade County and to the Taylor Slough and panhandle portions of Everglades Park from the flood control project's giant southerly conservation area.

—Deepen by two feet the navigation channel across Lake Okechobee.

Over two hundred people most of whom are supporters of the Corps of Engineers plan to raise the level of Lake Okechobee attended an all day meeting held at the Belle Glade Marina Wednesday. A delicious lunch was served, courtesy of the City of Belle Glade.

E. 3 St., bordering the property, is cleared in the courts of Palm Beach County.

What's New In Fall Fabrics To Be Demonstrated Nov. 16

At 10 a. m. Thursday, November 16 at the Mounts Agricultural Center, 531 North Military Trail, West Palm Beach, Mrs. Rose Brown and Mary Todd, Extension Home Economics Agent, will demonstrate — "How to Get the Best Buys in Fabrics. How to Select Patterns and Becoming Lines." This demonstration is open free to the public.

Leaflets to be distributed by Mrs. Todd, November 16, include: How to Get That Professional Look, Learn Lines, Color & Design Suited to You, A Perfect Fit, Knowing & Sewing Today's Fabrics, Facing, and Setting in a Guset.

Miss Todd says, "Fabrics for the holiday season include shimmering girds of metallic brocades in gold, silver, copper, etc. Fabrics that display the richness of the fabric are simple."

Miss Todd says, "Metallic fabrics require an underlining to stabilize the fabric against seam slippage. Use a lining fabric also for facings. Avoid snug-fitting pattern styles."

Needles, pins and shears should all be sharp. Pin only in the seam allowances. For machine stitching, use a fine needle (size 11) and 12 stitch es to the inch. Hem loosely with narrow lace.

Miss Margie Townsend spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Townsend. She is a student at University of South Florida, Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Mapp have returned from an enjoyable vacation trip of over 30 days. It featured and was down to 38 while there. Leaving here they spent several days with Mr. Mapp's son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mapp at Merritt Island and then traveled on to Metairie, La., where they were guests of his son, Ed Mapp and family, for five days. In Mississippi they visited most of the time with his sister-in-law, Mrs. C. H. Mapp at Forest and then guests of his step-daughters and their families The Glenn Silts and the Douglas Barnes at Jackson. They spent one day at Little Rock with Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Ward, parents of Burt Ward of Belle Glade. Enroute home they stopped over again at Merritt Island for a few days.

Kathryn, Margaret, Jill Were Chosen Homecoming Sponsors

The football team has selected the three girls who will serve as their sponsors at the annual Belle Glade-Pahokee football game tomorrow night. They are Kathryn Smith, Margaret Thompson, and Jill Bowen.

Kathryn, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. K. Smith, Jr., has been a cheerleader for the past four years and was chosen as captain by the other cheerleaders this year. She is also involved in many other school and community activities such as the Student Council, Beta Club, Band, and Rainbows. Sometimes called "Big Red," Kathryn enjoys sports and playing the piano. She plans to attend Young Harris College for two years and then transfer to the University of Florida where she will major in special education.

Margaret Thompson is the daughter of Mr. Douglas H. Thompson, her many varied activities include cheerleading, Paramedics, Beta Club, Student Council, Annual Staff, and Sr. Class Treasurer. She was chosen as Sweetheart for the Interact Club this year. Margaret serves on the Teen Town Board and enjoys playing the piano. She plans to study nursing at the University of Florida.

Completing the trio is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowen. Jill participates in many activities and holds many offices such as President of Paran dies and Secretary of the Student Council. She was chosen by her classmates as Miss Sophomore and was elected to be the Jr. Class Secretary. After graduation from high school, Jill plans to attend a Florida University and major in a medically related field.

These girls will be escorted on the field by the team captains, Terry Mann, Julio Perez, and Eddie Prevatt for the toss of the coin before the game and after the game to receive the Bill Young Memorial Trophy after the Rams bring home another victory.

Football Season To End Friday

The close of the 1967 football season is quickly approaching.

This is highlighted by the Belle Glade vs. Pahokee game. The big game of the season for either team is close at hand. The winner of this game receives the Bill Young Memorial Trophy.

To many people this is just another game. To the students of B.G.H.S. it is the most vital win which we could achieve. To the Seniors, it is their last game in which they will participate.

JILL BOWEN

Last week the Paramedical Club met to discuss plans for the Paramedical District Convention held on November 11 at Notre Dame Academy in Miami.

Eighteen club members attended the convention. Those running for state and district offices were Ginger Fortner, Alicia de Mola, Leslie Amerine, Cynthia Thibaud, and Brenda Bockter.

Each club represented at the convention displayed an exhibit on a certain medical career. The theme of the exhibit of Belle Glade's Paramedical club was "Ophthalmologists."

How Students Feel About Hippies

Debbie Unwin

Some Hippies believe in what they are doing, but most of them are only after attention. They preach love, but they do not practice it. They give the rest of the world a bad image of our generation. The true hippies are all right, it's the phony ones who give everybody a bad image.

Mary Helen Fontaine

Some would say that it is your life, so do with it what you wish. However, I feel that if, like the Hippies, everyone acts and displays just what they want and how they want it, sooner or later, this would go to pot.

Gail Sullivan

I believe in being an individual, however, there are extremes. Hippies and Beatniks call themselves nonconformists yet they are conforming to far extremes.

LIBRARIES LOSE MONEY TO THEFT

Do you realize that in the past five years the Belle Glade High School Library has lost over fifteen thousand dollars worth of books due to theft?

This figure may be startling, however, it is very low considering the enrollment in our school and probably is the lowest in Palm Beach County.

Although this has received some attention in the public press, the theft and mutilation of books, particularly in academic libraries, are subjects that librarians seem to say very little about. Some librarians have that calling attention to the problem of "unauthorized borrowing" may suggest the practice to students who have not yet thought of it. There has been an increase in "unauthorized borrowing."

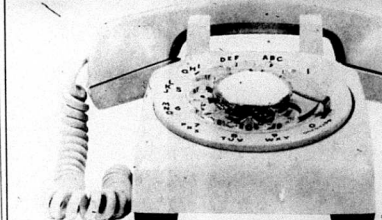

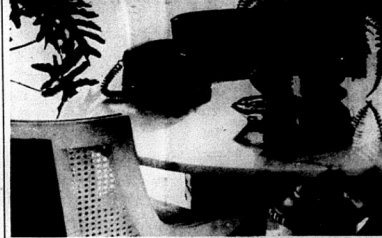

We would like for all students to check at home and find as many of these books as possible.

Friday Is Deadline For Seniors

If retakes are necessary, students are requested to contact to Mr. Averill as to appointment and additional charges. Those Seniors who received less than the four proofs are due a retake at no extra charge.

The Senior Packet contains one 8 x 10, two 5 x 7 prints and twelve wallet size prints.

Rams Played Scoreless Game Friday Against Martin County

Belle Glade tied Martin County 0-0 in one of the most important games of the year. The game is a deciding factor in the Western Division Championship. The Rams are slightly ahead with Belle Glade to play one more game and Martin County to play two. Both teams were well matched offensively and defensively. Neither team's offense was able to move the ball because of outstanding defense.

Belle Glade's defense played ed with a whole team effort as they held Martin County back. Julio Perez did an outstanding job defensively as did Jorge Rodriguez, Gerald Watson, Charles Close and Eddie Prevatte.

The Rams last game of the season will be played tomorrow night here against Pahokee. It will be Belle Glade's homecoming and stiff competition will be seen for the Bill Young Memorial Trophy.

Shakespeare's Screen Shrew Is Good Gawdy Modern Humor

By Kathy Morris

A nearly 400 year old Shakespearean "Taming of the Shrew" has been made modern by the acting of Elizabeth Taylor and Richard Burton, and the production of Franco Zeffirelli.

The movie production brings in modern day action, humor, and style. It emphasizes loud boisterous and gawdy humor rarely seen on today's screen. It all takes place in Padua where colorful scenes make the background for Petruchio (Burton) to take on the war of making the town shrew Katharina (Miss Taylor) a lady. After forcing her to marry him, he gives her a taste of her own medicine by rude and inconsiderate behavior.

When the finally understands what she has been doing all her life, she becomes the most obedient of wives and wins a bet for her husband. The shrew.

Some people really had fun Saturday night on a hayride in S. B. How about it B. Warren, B. Burns, M. Stokes, M. Sullivan, G. Weaver.

Pep Rally Was 'Best Ever Held'

The B.G.H.S. cheerleaders eagerly led the enthusiastic student body at the pep rally before the Belle Glade-Stuart game last Friday.

This was a decisive game as Belle Glade and Stuart were tied for first place in the Western Suncoast Conference. In preparation for the pep rally, the cheerleaders had not spoken all day—saving all their energy for the rally.

The great school spirit, which Principal Pellon Morris and the school had been commended on at the Belle Glade-Boca Raton game, was again in full force.

Evidence of the student body's school spirit was shown in the enthusiasm and cooperation with the cheerleaders, which resulted in more cheers at this pep rally than any before. The spirit of the band, cheerleaders, and student body made this rally of the most effective of this school year.

Boy Scouts Program Is Well Organized

Across the United States there are hundreds of Boy Scout local councils, each ranging in size from a part of a very populous county to several counties. They are incorporated under the particular state laws, and their basic structure is similar to the National Council whose fundamental requirements and principles must be included. Each council has a Scout Executive, District Executive, and such other professional employees as circumstances allow or require. Most councils are subdivided into several districts, each of which is usually served by a professional, a District Executive.

The Gulf Stream Council embraces seven county areas consisting of the counties of St. Lucie, Martin, Indian River, Palm Beach, Okeechobee, Hendry, and Glades. The council office is located at 501-431 at Spruce in West Palm Beach. The service center at the office serves as the office for the professional and other staff members as well as providing the facilities for all services rendered to the packs, troops, and posts within the area.

The Executive Board, composed of volunteer Scouters, is elected at the annual meeting of the council whose members are principally the institutional representatives of each and every registered unit. The president, Tom Vernon; Vice President, Jack Faircloth; Judge Russell McIntosh; William Wagner, Allen Markham, and T. J. Reese; Scout Commissioner, Alvin W. Butterfield; Treasurer, Arthur E. Anderson; Glades District members of the Executive Board are Vance Denton, Pakobee; Reginald H. Lewis, Belle Glade; Ben Dixon, Okeechobee; Tom Parker, Belle Glade; Judge Bryant, Okeechobee; Gerald Chambers, Indian River; and Allen Markham, Okeechobee. E. W. "Bud" Weaver, former Glades District Chairman, is a member of the Advisory Board. The professional staff is headed by Scout Executive C. M. Gaskin, assisted by District Executives Charlie Bethea, LeRoy Hight, Claude Goff, and Neil Adams.

During this past year the Gulf Stream Council awarded its highest award of recognition, the Silver Beaver, to Attorney Phil O'Connell and J. W. Adair.

Of great importance to the public is the fact that the entire operation of the council and all of its services and districts is dependent completely upon community support. Funds are raised through community chests and local Boy Scout fund raising campaigns. The success and effectiveness of the Scouting program depend not only upon community support financially, but also upon responsible, acceptable adult leadership. Thus the program of the Boy Scouts of America to develop citizenship, character, and physical fitness is just as strong as the community will have it to be.

Controversy Surrounds Program

Controversy has surrounded the OEO funding of South Florida Migrant Legal Services Program Incorporated and its present operation.

Questions are raised not on what services are being provided but on areas where no action has yet been taken. The Program is patterned after the California Rural Legal Assistance and personnel within the program look to the CRLA as an example, although little has been said about duplicating some of the CRLA's more controversial action.

It is in the area of what this could develop into that the greatest concern seems to exist.

In speeches in both the House and Senate, California legislators have described the CRLA as being detrimental to agriculture, causing waste of crops, loss of jobs to workers in agriculture which inevitably cost the Nation's housewives higher prices at the store. They said CRLA is directly involved in promoting union organization. They point to the recent CRLA made against the Department of Labor. The outcome was again highly detrimental to agriculture.

Senator Murphy and Congressmen Gubser, both of California, each made lengthy address to the houses, outlining in detail these objections to the program. Interested parties in the Glades are well informed about the California agriculture and are leery of a duplication of the California growers problem of fighting an expensive battle with a foe who has unlimited resources, i.e. the federally funded CRLA program.

To date some conflicts have arisen but none that would not arise in any situation where two parties differ and hire lawyers to solve the conflict. Some opposition is present at a matter of principal in opposition to federal intrusion into ever increasing areas. If the Federal government can bring in five lawyers, some ask, when will we see our doctor population doubled with the bringing in of a staff of perhaps 10 doctors?

The question of "Why" is being raised in other areas of the program also. Why allocate money for 300,000 miles of authorized travel, not counting conference travel, for a total of $45,000 when the program covers only six counties? Why is $48,000 needed for operation of telephones? Why fund the program, based in Dade County, when that county already has a large legal services program. This same County only has 14,000 of the 80,000 migrants the program says it will serve.

But perhaps the most important question is, "Will the program serve the real needs of its target population?" This question will only be answered through performance and many Glades citizens are watching carefully, evaluating, and hoping that the program can indeed answer a legitimate need.

Migrants Have Legal Service

The attorney population of Belle Glade has doubled. Five lawyers, with main offices in Belle Glade, are working under an Office of Economic Opportunity two year grant to "make available to the culturally disadvantaged a variety of legal services aimed primarily at impoverished migratory farm workers and agricultural workers," it states in the articles of incorporation.

The Belle Glade staff hopes to cover the migrant population from Canal Point to Clewiston, handling legal problems ranging from divorce, custody, misdemeanors, consumer problems and employer — employee problems. Work is being concentrated now in the Belle Glade and Pakobee areas.

About 99% of the work load will be cases that never come to the attention of the public, said S. Gare, an attorney with this office. The other one percent will be court cases which will be all the public cases the work being done, he said.

The Florida program is funded by OEO for a two year period for over $800,000. In this program the South Florida Migrant Legal Services Program, Inc., has its headquarters in Miami and an East Coast office in Belle Glade and West Coast office in Los Angeles. Lee and Palm Beach Counties. The concept of legal services being provided by federal funds is stated in the incorporation of the organization. It was, "The struggle for equal justice under law, long an objective of democratic government, cannot be won unless the poor and underprivileged as well as the well-to-do can obtain competent lawyers to champion their cause." The OEO will provide funds to enable the legal profession more effectively to meet the challenges of representing indigent persons under law.

These objectives are seen as obtainable through: legislative enactment, administrative changes, court reform or other legal action.

Attorney Gare, member of the Belle Glade staff with Investigator Rodolfo Juarez R. The Belle Glade office will have two investigators working in the area.

THE FISHING REPORT

Windy weather hindered the fishing around Belle Glade over the past week. However, the wind has subsided, and good fishing is forecast for the next week.

Local Business

The manufacture of a good product is only one step in the process of the creation of wealth.

Shortly after World War II, Henry J. Kaiser built a good compact automobile which seemed to fit a real need in the American market. Although the new Kaiser compact, the "Henry J." was widely promoted in national media, the automobile was not accepted by the public.

Two years later other compact automobiles were in significant demand.

Why did the Kaiser automobile fail to arouse what was obviously an important latent demand for a small, inexpensive car? Market analysts attributed the failure to several factors:

1. Insufficient time was given to the promotion of a new concept in automobiles.
2. The potential market for the car was not sharply defined. In the United States the compact is often a second, or third, family car. This trend was not anticipated in 1950.
3. Although the "Henry J." was intensively promoted, insufficient attention was given to specific benefits which could be derived from owning a small car.
4. Local advertising and sales efforts were inadequate.

Engineers Here To Learn

Two Turkish engineers are "soaking up" a little American know-how in flood control and water management.

Kadir Gurkok, from Ankara, and Kutlay Unvar, from Mersin, visited the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District Monday and Tuesday. They were briefed on the 18-county water control system by William V. Storch, chief engineer for the FCD. Tuesday they had an orientation flight in the District's amphibious float plane — viewing conservation areas, levees, canals, Glades farm-lands, and Lake Okechobee from the air. They also inspected the world's largest low-level pumping station (S-5A) located at Twenty Mile Bend on the West Palm Beach Canal.

Donald Vandergrift of the Palm Beach-Broward Soil and Water Conservation District, Lake Worth, is shepherding the foreign engineers this week in Palm Beach County. He took them by car Wednesday to Belle Glade to see crops and agricultural production.

Next week the engineers will visit the Plantation Field Laboratory of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, near Ft. Lauderdale.

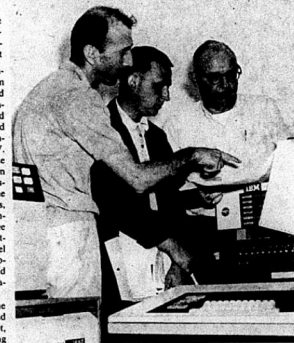

On return to Turkey the engineers will be responsible for designing major new water control projects. They explained that parts of Turkey are similar to Florida, with rich organic soils which can produce excellent crops, if flood and irrigation problems are solved.

At FCD headquarters in West Palm Beach, the engineers inspected new electronic computers. They indicated they had never before seen an electronic computer.

Prior to coming to Florida, Gurkok and Unvar spent eight months visiting major American projects in a variety of states, including California, Colorado, Nebraska and Texas.

They will fly from Florida to Washington, D. C. before returning to their homeland.

Food is one of the best bargains you'll ever get. According to Florida Agricultural Experiment Station economists, only 17.5 cents of each dollar is spent for food, compared to 25.3 cents in 1947.

TURKISH ENGINEERS — William V. Storch, right, chief engineer for the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District, explains functions of electronic computers to Kadir Gurkok, left, and Kutlay Unvar. Storch said the FCD plans to create a "mathematical model" of the 18-county District, and learn by computer the best ways to operate and maintain facilities under a variety of hydrologic conditions.

Asst. Scribe, Sharon Butts; Treasurer, Mary Butts; and Chaplain, Mary Brown.

The troops advisor is Mary Jane Ford, a LSH English instructor.

Thanksgiving Skit To Be Presented

Our Thanksgiving presentation skit will be written by Vivian Berry, a member of the senior class.

Her skit tells how Thanksgiving became a holiday. It is based on the life of Sarah Josepha Hall, who tries to capture the trials and hardships of making Thanksgiving a holiday.

Sarah has visions of fighting a long battle over the years.

She fought this battle with patience and persistence and she won. It tells of the links she had between two great presidents George Washington and Abraham Lincoln.

The skit ends with Abraham Lincoln proclaiming the last Thursday in November as Thanksgiving. In the outcome Sarah won her battle and enjoyed Thanksgiving.

THE FINAL WORD:

"I have a cancelled check to prove it!"

Bobcats End Season With 25-0 Win

The Lake Shore Mighty Bobcats skinned the Dunbar High Tigers in Fort Myers on their homecoming.

The first half of the game was dominated by the Bobcats. James O. Benjamin, right Half back slipped through the Tigers line for the Bobcat's first touchdown.

The Tigers really pawed, but the Bobcats claw was too powerful.

After a splendid half time show, the Tigers kicked to the Bobcats and hung them for four downs.

The short passes of quarterback Bobby Jackson to left end Charles Walker and the hard running of right half back, James Benjamin really kept the Tigers on pins.

To add to the Bobcats rally, left end Charles Walker pulled two short passes that resulted in touchdowns and flanker back, Joe Faison pulled in the Bobcats defensive unit, the Tigers got one intercepted break and it was stopped by left safety Odester Harrison, who intercepted an attempted tackle pass. The game ended with the Bobcats' second victory of the season with a score of 25-0. This game ended the 1967 football season for the Mighty Lake Shore Bobcats. The season was quite different from the past two, this year they're underdogs, but for the past two seasons they've been champions.

Well kids it seems to be that time again when everything just seems to be working out just lovely, except for a few of our friends. Let's sit back and relax and read the latest.

R. B. how do you manage to be so easy going and cool when you have your girls about to kill themselves over you. I've noticed that you treat J. S. and J. S. about the same. Boy what a coincidence they have the same first and last initials, but we won't tell anyone. W. W. I see you are still holding on to what was yours all to yourself, but now you have competition. I was watching you Fri. night at the game. Girl, what you did was shocking wasn't it? What is this going to be a JR-SR, rite?

Hey J. L. I see that your old love Z. W. has come back. What are you going to do about E. S? I'm dying to find out. Aren't you? Take it in stride.

R. H. since K. F. went back to school I see you are still trying to get yourself in trouble with C. M. You had better take it easy, because the semester is almost over and you know what that means another... Fill it in and see what you come up with, and if it's the same as mine you have what we call "troubles".

It seems as though M. B. Jr. has a great deal of competition with a certain young gentleman S. W., with that out of the way, I see you're fighting for survival and you won't go lacking.

The Art Department displayed very good poster designs on National Education Week. I know the members of the Playmakers Guild are glad they are off probation.

The hand will participate in the Marching Festival that will be held in Fort Pierce, November 18, 1967.

The Senior Class had their class pictures taken Tuesday.

The Senior Class has started preparation for the senior class play.

Please help the "Water Fountain" committee campaign in their effort to provide for more convenient water fountains on campus.

If you have news for your class or organizations, give it to me. I will be more than glad to print it in "KAMPUS HIGHLIGHTS".
